The sizing for each company is different and different from Department store sizing.

Your dress is ordered by your largest measurement for that size.

Some dress companies only have one length to choose from, if you are tall it might be best to be sure that the company will have the option of extra length.

Any extra charges like extra length or a size of 18 and over may be paid for when the dress is picked up. (we will charge what we are charged on the invoice when the dress arrives)

We will order the Bridesmaids dresses when we have all of their sizes and money

We are not responsible for incorrect measurements done elsewhere or any weight changes
